Welcome to the home page of the Advance Portal Website. The site aims to link the activities of Advance Institutional Transformation recipients. You can find information using the menus on the left or the search feature on the right. If you have any questions about anything here or know of links that should be added, feel free to contact us.

Announcements

Tech is the New Featured Program, August 31st, 2009

I am pleased to put the spotlight on Georgia Tech’s ADVANCE Program site. Please read more information about them here.

Statewide and Links on ADVANCE Portal, August 26th, 2009

NSF JAM in June one of the people who kindly participated in evaluating the portal gave a spark of an idea. What if you could see all of the ADVANCE programs on a huge map and then be able to see more details about the grants from the map. We listened. A couple of months later and we have a functional map of all of the ADVANCE grant recipients. Each type of grant is a different colored push pin. As you hover over the push pin...
